Roths Glen, The Luxury Castle for Whisky Connoisseurs, offers guests the rare opportunity to experience the ultimate whisky getaway. The owner of Roths Glen and Whisky Magazine invites whisky lovers to stay in this picture-perfect castle in the heart of Speyside to enjoy the ultimate whisky weekend.

Offering breath-taking views down the glen and within easy reach of Inverness and Aberdeen airports, Roths Glen is the perfect sanctuary for those looking for the finest whisky experiences. With space limited to just 28 guests, the Ultimate Whisky Weekend includes tastings, distillery visits, fine dining and sharing time with distillers and friends with a passion for whisky.

Built in 1893 as an iconic baronial style Highland castle, Roths Glen was designed by famous whisky architect Charles Chree Doig, the inventor of the iconic Chinese-style pagoda-shaped Doig ventilator. The castle has 14 king-size en suite bedrooms, stunning drawing room and dining room, breakfast room, library, snooker room, tasting room, whisky vault and tower room. Set within 11 acres of picturesque grounds with an idyllic lochan, there are outdoor terraces, heated kennels and sporting rooms to ensure you can enjoy the very best of Speyside.

You will be treated to the utmost care and attention by our dedicated team. Indulge in a dining experience like no other, led by our award-winning chef who crafts culinary masterpieces using local, seasonal ingredients. Our manager arranges every detail, from transport to bespoke trips, housekeepers ensure the castle is immaculate and serviced daily, and our outdoor team are on hand should you require their expertise. All staff live locally so have extensive knowledge of the area and understand the very best of what Speyside has to offer. The detailed itinerary is outlined below, with each dinner attended by a special guest from the world of whisky. It's a full but very relaxed week-end and the dress code is informal during the day and smart casual for dinner.

Whether a seasoned whisky connoisseur or just beginning to explore the world of whisky, this is an experience that will leave guests with lasting memories.
